AU or BU Random Year Coin

Cost-Effective Investment

Coins such as the Mexican 50 Pesos gold coin, with great features for both collectors and investors have a wider appeal and greater liquidity than coins which only serve one function. The 50 Peso coin is larger than many other investment coins, coming in at 1.2057 troy ounces of .900 pure gold. This makes them one of the most cost-effective ways to purchase gold.

The condition of these random year coins offered by GMRgold is About Uncirculated or Brilliant Uncirculated. Both AU and BU coins are popular with collectors and also helpful to investors who are interested in selling the coin to buyers who want to see high quality coins. These Mexican 50 Peso gold coins are in limited supply.

They were minted by Banco de Mexico in the years 1921-1947. Additional coins were re-struck with the year 1947. Because these coins are not as plentiful as many other gold coins, buying them offers a unique opportunity. Although the demand for the coins is currently somewhat low, demand can change, but the supply of these beautiful coins will never increase.

Before the introduction of the South African Krugerrand in 1967, the Mexican gold Peso was considered the purest gold available. Minted at the Mexico City Mint, they were first issued during the year of Mexico's 100th anniversary of their freedom from Spain. GMRgold is proud to offer these random year bullion coins at low, reasonable prices at a small premium over the spot price of gold. Each 50 Peso gold coin you purchase increases your gold holdings significantly and more efficiently than other similar coins.

The obverse design of the 50 Peso gold coin features the image of Winged Victory as the Roman goddess Nike. The symbolism extends to Mexico as their "Angel de la Independencia." Also shown on the front of the coin are two Mexican landmarks, the Iztaccihuatl and Popocatepetl volcanoes. The 50 Peso denomination, the weight of 3.75 Gr. Oro Puro, and the date are stamped into the obverse of the coin.

On the reverse, the Mexican coat of arms is displayed with an eagle grasping a serpent in its beak. Also on the reverse are the words "ESTADOS UNIDOS MEXICANOS."

The best time to purchase this magnificent coin, whether you are interested in its investment or numismatic value is right now, while the premiums and demand are low.
